

OMA

- For 2008 all Pro class racers must be a member of UORRA. Membership Fee: $40
- Pro's will pit in designated pit area. If a pit area is not designated, Pro's will be informed on pit regulations at registration.
- For Pro Classes it is mandatory to have blue backgrounds/yellow numbers, OMA will NOT provide one set to each Pro for 2008, backgrounds/numbers are available for purchase at registration, $60 a set ($20 each plate). If a Pro racer does not have blue/yellow, he will NOT race, and NO refunds! *Exception follows...
- Pro Class may bid out the "side" number plates to personal sponsors. We encouraged our Pro racers to act upon this for a distinctive promotional strategy for the Series and Racers to be recognized in the industry media. *Must be done professionally, NO decals on just a number plate!
- Pro M/C racers will be provided a badge for waived gate/ spectator fee, you will also receive a guest badge for mechanic or family member. You may claim your badge at the gate or registration.
- For Pro Classes... 1 Throw Away. For Amateur Classes... 3 Throw Aways / Best 7 Results Scored.
- Pro ATV racers will run 2 hours at Rd 3 & Rd 6, due to the co-sanctioning with AWRCS.
- With co-sanctioned events- OMA will recognize co--sanctioning ASSN's membership cards only for the event in their region.
- Saturday's Pro-Am-Class, Intermediate-Class, Novice-Class, Amateur Team Class (No Pro class entries). These classes receive no manufacturer contingency. However, there will be points tallied up for the series, with year-end awards (no jackets). Schoolboy will receive contingency and full set of awards.
